DONATION FORM

This is our record:

- The first workshop on individual access to the UN human rights mechanisms
- The first national symposium on self-determination
- The leader in the elaboration of the human rights approach to development
- The first International Conference on Sport and Human Rights
- The instrumental agency to establish Australians for a Just Refugee Program
- The formulator of strategic options for the promotion of reconciliation among local and regional non-government organizations
- Facilitator of cultural exchanges between Japan and Australia
- The most credible commentator on legislation on Native Title, security issues, children's rights, asylum seekers and refugees
- The first workshop in Australia that launched the Ban the Mines Campaign
- Facilitator of a youth delegation to the World Conference Against Racism

To continue to be among the leaders in the human rights field and to address new approaches to human rights both in Australia and internationally, we need your financial support. Please give generously.
